

EXPEDITION BACKPACK

Lost World

The choice of outdoor professionals. This canvas equivalent of our Mountain Expedition model performs across the whole spectrum of backcountry pursuits. The Lost World combines essential break-down modularity, compression ability and fit-out for alpine use with the strength, heavy-load comfort and weather-resistance demanded on extended, off-track journeys through rough, wet country. The long canvas bag with its wide roll-top, dry-bag style throat and jack-up, bum-bag-convertible top cover has capacity to contain outsized loads and double as a three-quarter bivibag. The Synchro-FORM Hi-LOAD harness completes the comfort side of the equation.

FEATURES

- » Single-compartment, high-volume, canvas bag
- » Removeable hydration sleeve, internal racking
- » The long, roll-top throat allows the pack to accommodate massive loads
- » Detachable, dual-compartment top cover converts to effective waist pack.
- » Generous bottle pockets, full alpine racking and multiple ski carrying options
