

ALPINE BACKPACK

Mountain Expedition

The monster volume alpine expedition pack with the capacity and comfort for long approaches to remote peaks, multi-week ski traverses and all base camp carries - no more dangling overload gear around the outside of your pack. At camp it can then be stripped down and compressed to less than 20 litres for ascents and day circuits. It can be configured to virtually any mountaineering backpack requirement.

FEATURES

- » Single-compartment, high-volume, high-tenacity polyester bag
- » Ski carry, plus alpine racking
- » Detachable, dual-compartment top cover converts to waist pack
- » Overload pocket houses a snow shovel, or adds ten litres of capacity for extra gear
